

ASL AND LIFE THROUGH DEAF EYES

Visual Images and Perceptions

Earn 0.5 PS CEUs provided by University of Arizona

Friday, February 11, 2011

8:00 AM to 1:30 PM

Admission Fee: FREE

Bring your own lunch.

University of Arizona
College of Education
Room 455
1430 E. 2nd Street
Tucson, AZ 85721

The facility is accessible for wheelchair entrance.

Sponsored by
University of Arizona
College of Education
Department of Disability and Psychoeducational Studies

The University of Arizona is an authorized CMP sponsor.
This workshop is sponsored for 0.5 CEUs in the content area of Professional Studies.

Failure to attend this workshop in its entirety will result in forfeiture of CEUs.

Presented by Carole Lazorisak Certified Deaf ASL/ Interpreter Mentor and Deborah Mayer Life Coach

In our interactive, integrated learning session, you will work with visual perceptions and images, ASL grammatical features, cultural and life perspectives, spacial relations as well as interpersonal relations through activities. You will leave the session with deeper understanding of perspectives, and apply to your signing and interpretation.

Carole Lazorisak, M.A.

RID: CDI & RSC

ASLTA: Professional; Master Mentor

Carole Lazorisak is a Master Mentor, certified ASL instructor, interpreter trainer and workshop facilitator for over 30 years. Carole holds a BA, Gallaudet University, an MA, New York University, and worked toward a Ph.D. at Teachers College, Columbia University. Carole's expertise is in communication, language and cultural studies, interpreting, assessment, and training. Her book, The Complete Idiot's Guide to Conversational Sign Language Illustrated with a DVD was published September, 2004. Through her work, Carole has helped hundreds of individuals to recognize their unique gifts and talents and achieve their personal and professional goals. She inspires students to achieve their full potential and enjoy a richer, more rewarding life.

Deborah S. Mayer, M.A., CRC; ACC: Association Coaching Certificate

Deborah Mayer is the Owner of Crossroad Solutions Coach, LLC, life and leadership coach, teacher, trainer and workshop facilitator for 30 years. Deborah holds a BS, Deaf Education, University of Tennessee, a MA, Deafness Rehabilitation and Counseling at New York University, a certificate in Rehabilitation Counseling and Rehabilitation Administration, San Diego State University, a certificate in Leadership Coaching, Georgetown University. She coaches one-to-one and leads interactive workshops, conferences and retreats for both deaf and hearing communities. She enhances the well-being and presence of deaf, hard of hearing or hearing individuals and groups. Deborah designs highly interactive partnership programs that maximize potential and empower individuals to achieve the greatness in themselves. Deborah teaches Professional Coaching certificate courses at Gallaudet University.